The website 'Street life' is displayed on a screen. It has a header with the logo 'Street life' and navigation links for 'accord', 'archives', 'panorama', 'contact', and 'à propos'. The main content area is divided into three columns:

- Jungle street lives: Date 1 juillet 2014. Description: 'It's been a few weeks now, but the inspiration and buzz is still lingering. A highlight of my career was introducing Susan Kare at a Dribbble + Photoshop meetup at Adobe's headquarters in San Francisco. Last year, Rich Charles Pearson and some of the Photoshop team had a brainstorm meeting about doing another event together: I threw out something that, at the time, seemed like a pipe dream and/or a long shot: "Hey, let's ask Susan Kare to give a short talk." I had just watched a video of a presentation she gave and it was mind-blowing.'
- Joe Cowards: Date 10 juillet 2014. Description: 'My favorite part of entrepreneurship is the sit. That time spent on the chair, heading up a mountain. It can be offensively slow and edgy shuffling through a long line, the chair whipping around the corner and knocking you up. And then off you go. I grew up in Vermont and never skied. Which is to say like growing up in Hawaii and never surfing. Or growing up in Antarctica and never ice skating. Has anyone ever grown up in Antarctica? I picture it more of a place one can only visit. Anyways, hockey took me up in my time during the long winters of my childhood, to all of this is new to me. Having just started snowboarding a little over a year ago, I'm proof that it's never too late to get out there.'
- Marquee Moon: Date 11 juillet 2014. Description: 'El quoniam inedia gravi afflictione: incum petere Palau nomine, vegetemur in mense uideri mura firmata, ubi conductari nunc usqua committatur dictibus militibus omnes latus laeuae defendebitibus aduersi: circumstans utrum hoc munimentum per triplum et trecium et cum neque aduersa quia sine discerne aderat latit, nec concusa quicquam gen posset, nec procedent illius insidiosae committerent, macto excedunt postremo et subgenite macta verbis agressor.
